

DSML 2024 - Neural Networks exercises

1- Consider the following Neural Network architecture with 2 hidden layers. The weights and bias values of the hidden layers and also the output layer are shown in the figure. Moreover, each hidden layer has a ReLU activation as shown in the figure. Compute the output of this neural network for the following input x .

$$x = [1 \quad 1]$$

